GAME NOTES

NEW FACES BEHIND THE BENCH, AND THE FRONT OFFICE

Troy Cordingley & Phil Sanderson head into their first season leading the Warriors after management decided to make a change from long tenured head coach Chris Gill. Cordingley, who has 10 seasons behind the bench as an NLL head coach, compiling a .554-win percentage, most recently served as Assistant General Manager and Director of Scouting for the Buffalo Bandits. Cordingley brings Phil Sanderson, a 12-year NLL veteran and 3-time NLL Champions Cup winning defender, in as an assistant coach to join retained staff that includes Curtis Hodgson, Dan Perreault and Dwight Maetche behind the bench. On January 9, the Vancouver Warriors saw General Manager Dan Richardson and Assistant General Manager Ken Thomas depart the organization. On January 14, Troy Cordingley was named Interim GM for the balance of the season, with the rest of the duties being absorbed internally.

NEW 'BAL' GAME

It has been a week of change in Warriors country, with the team making several moves. Following his injury on January 28th, Vancouver moved forward Logan Schuss to the Season Ending Injury list. The Warriors also released long time veteran defender Justin Salt. Arguably the highest profile trade in the NLL happened on Tuesday, January 31, when Warriors Head Coach and Interim General Manager traded veteran forward Mitch Jones to the Philadelphia Wings. In return, Vancouver picked up 26-year-old defender Steph Charbonneau to help the defense right away, and a 2023 First round Pick and 2024 second round pick to stock the cupboard full of future Warriors down the road. With the departure of Jones, Cordingley and his coaching staff have awarded the 'A' worn by Jones to Keegan Bal. Bal led the team in scoring last year with 99 points (44g-55a) and leads this season with 16 goals and 18 assists for 34 points. On Wednesday, February 1, Cordingley continued making moves, bringing back veteran netminder Aaron Bold while parting ways with goalie Ethan Woods. Bold was with the Warriors for parts of two seasons between 2018-20 and is a 2x NLL Cup Champion with Saskatchewan in 2014-15 and again in 2015-16.
