GAME PREVIEW

Saskatoon, SK — The Saskatchewan Rush are heading west to Vancouver, BC to kick off a three-game road stint. The Rush will take on the Vancouver Warriors at Rogers Arena with a 9:00 p.m. CST start time on Saturday, February 4th.

Saturday's match will be the first of three meetings for the two teams and the only one on the road. Vancouver will return to Saskatchewan on February 25th and April 1st to complete the series.

Last year's season series closed out with the Rush on top. The Rush captured a 10-9 win early in the season at Rogers Arena in December but then fell 13-7 in February. Saskatchewan finished the series with the upper hand after a 15-13 win on home turf.

The Rush continue to sit undefeated on Co-op Field this season after a 15-10 victory over the Las Vegas Desert Dogs last Saturday. Mark Matthews had his season high night with 12 points (4G-8A) and broke an NLL record of 13 turnovers. Robert Church also had himself a night with five goals and three assists. Rookie forward Austin Madronic netted his first career hat trick and captured the first star of the night.

The Warriors are coming off their sixth loss of the season after falling 20-7 to Panther City Lacrosse Club last weekend. Vancouver announced a trade early in the week to move Mitch Jones, who currently leads the team in points, assists and shots on goal and sits second for goals, to the Philadelphia Wings in exchange for Steph Charbonneau and a 1st and 2nd round draft pick. Vancouver sits with a 1-6 record heading into this weekend's game.

Saturday night's game will take place at Rogers Arena in Vancouver, BC with a 9:00 p.m. CST start time. It will be the TSN game of the week and can be viewed on TSN networks. Fans can also listen live on the Rush app.
